

Core Faculty Positions at Argosy University, Chicago; founded as the Illinois School of Professional Psychology.

Full or Half Time Core Faculty for APA accredited Clinical Psychology Psy.D. program beginning in the fall of 2010. Doctoral level teaching experience desired, assistant or associate professor rank. These are core faculty, ten month positions involving teaching, advisement, supervision of doctoral research, clinical training and faculty governance. New faculty will participate in our faculty mentoring program. Argosy University, Chicago is one of the nation's first schools of professional psychology and is located in culture-rich downtown Chicago. Successful candidates will join a large, diverse, and cohesive faculty of outstanding practitioner-scholars. We value intellectual diversity, faculty collaboration, and cultural competence.

Ph.D./Psy.D., APA accredited Internship, 1+ years post-doctoral clinical experience preferred, and IL licensure or eligibility. New graduates who show exceptional clinical and scholarly promise will be considered. Teaching areas of expertise open, but preference will be given to candidates specializing in Forensics, Assessment, Cognitive/Affective Psychology, Biological Psychology, Social Psychology, or International Psychology.

To ensure full consideration, the application must be received by January 15th, 2010. Review of completed applications will begin immediately and continue until the positions are filled.

Please fax, mail, or e-mail a letter of interest, three letters of recommendation, vitae, and work samples (e.g., reprints, syllabi, teaching evaluations) to Psy.D. Faculty Search c/o Toni Johnson, Department Administrator, Argosy University, Chicago, 225 N. Michigan 13th Floor, Chicago, IL 60601 / tcjohnson@argosy.edu / Fax: 312-777-7748. Any inquiries may be forwarded to the Search Committee Chair, Dr. Sue H. Bae at sbae@argosy.edu. EOE.

Julia Wernke, Ph.D.
Associate Director of Training/Assistant Professor
Argosy University, Chicago
225 N. Michigan Avenue, Suite 1300
Chicago, IL 60601
(312) 777-7669