Position #2947 - Assistant or Associate Professor, Psychology

The University of La Verne's Department of Psychology invites applications for one tenure-track faculty position at the assistant or associate professor level in Psychology. This is a 10 month appointment, for the 2010-2011 academic year. The Psychology department includes a Psy.D in Clinical-Community Psychology, a MS in Marriage & Family Therapy, a MS in Counseling with a Concentration in College Counseling & Student Services, and an undergraduate psychology program. Responsibilities include: teaching six courses a year equivalent to no less than 18 semester hours of which at least fifty percent will be in the APA-accredited Psy.D. Clinical Psychology Program. Applicants are also expected to maintain an independent research program and to advise and mentor undergraduate and graduate students. Qualifications include: a Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology from an APA-accredited doctoral program; completion of an APA/APPIC-accredited internship; licensure in CA or the ability to be licensed within 3 years of initial employment; record of excellence or potential in teaching and training with multicultural populations and in incorporating multicultural issues in courses; a demonstrated history of scholarly research and the potential to continue such work; and a commitment to quality teaching and scholarship in a comprehensive liberal arts university with a very diverse student body. The hiring range for this position is dependent upon qualifications and departmental equity. Benefits of employment include a comprehensive health and welfare plan, tuition remission program for employee, spouse and dependent children and a generous 10% contribution to the university's 403-B retirement plan. Review of applicants will begin immediately and will continue until position is filled. To apply, please send a letter of interest describing your teaching philosophy and research experience, curriculum vita, representative publications, evidence of teaching effectiveness (including several recent course evaluations and course syllabi), and letters from three professional references in Word or PDF format to: jobs@ulv.edu, or mail to Human Resources, University of La Verne, 1950 Third Street, La Verne CA 91750.
