

Full time Faculty, Clinical Psychology Program

The School of Professional Psychology (SOPP) at Wright State University (WSU) is seeking outstanding applicants for our APA-accredited doctoral (Psy.D.) program at the Assistant Professor level. Successful candidates will join a diverse and innovative faculty who are active in teaching, service, practice, and scholarship. Applicants must have commitment to graduate instruction, training effective clinicians, supervision of student research, academic advisement, and involvement in clinical and scholarly activity. As a generalist program, areas of specialty remain open, but candidates with interest in assessment, evidence-based intervention, and multicultural issues are encouraged to apply. We are also interested in candidates with background in clinical administration.

All candidates must hold a doctoral degree in psychology from an APA-accredited program and be licensed in Ohio as a psychologist or be able to acquire licensure in Ohio within one year of appointment. We offer a competitive salary and excellent benefits.

To apply, go to jobs.wright.edu/applicants/Central?quickFind=51195. A letter of interest and vita must be attached to the online application. Additionally, three current letters of reference and an official transcript verifying highest degree should be sent to Kimberly Hudson, Search Committee Secretary, Wright State University School of Professional Psychology, Ellis Human Development Institute, 9 N. Edwin C. Moses Blvd., Dayton, OH 45402. Review of applications will begin January 29, 2010, and continue until the position is filled. Wright State University is an EO/AA employer.
