

San Jose State University, Counseling Services, is currently accepting applications for our multicultural postdoctoral residency. Details of the position can be found at our website:

http://www.sjsu.edu/counseling/Training\_Program/

The Multicultural Postdoctoral Residency begins mid-August, 2010. The 1500 hour residency ends in early June 2011. A postdoctoral resident will be expected to perform all the duties of a generalist clinician in a comprehensive multicultural university counseling center and will receive supervision according to the State of California Board of Psychology guidelines. Duties include but are not limited to: short-term individual, group, and couples counseling; possible supervision of practicum students; counseling assessment and referral; crisis intervention; consultation with students, faculty, staff, and parents; and developing campus outreach activities for a target population (e.g., the International House, creating outreach programs for Muslim students, Black History Month, co-leading the social justice/outreach seminar, etc.).

Applicants must have completed a Doctoral degree in clinical or counseling psychology from an accredited educational institution and 1500 pre-doctoral internship hours. Preference is given to applicants who has experience in working with a ethnically, or otherwise diverse student populations. Pending budget approval, the Multicultural Postdoctoral Residency carries a stipend of $27,432 with medical, dental, and vision benefits. Application materials are due January 22, 2010.